

Acquapendente – Villalba trek

This route allows you to go from the bus terminal in Acquapendente and to reach, through a part of Via Francigena and the Gregorian Bridge on the River Paglia, the road with gravel that continue uphill exceeds the pretty country church of S. Angelo and reaches Podere Casone . Continuing to climb you will arrive in the vicinity of the farm " Le Roghete " inserted in a landscape dominated by olive groves .

From here on, the path enters the wooded deciduous and alternating with conifer reforestation characterize the entire Monte Rufeno Nature Reserve .

The ditch runs along a stretch Acquacalda born in reserves from the slopes of Monte Rufeno and , sliding on the clay substrate typically gives its path waterfalls also of some importance .

Immediately after that you enter the Path Hike " Acquachiara " that continues uphill passing near Podere Iron Gate and Podere Il Macchione , both crumbling at this time .

Continue now with gravel road passing through Podere Tigna up the Entrance n ° 6 of the Reserve and passed this goes up with a nice trek in the woods through the picnic area of the Park of Villalba